Capabilities and performance highlights

Thought leadership in Real Estate Research:

- Depth of insights from an integrated top-down and bottom-up approach provides unique perspective into markets and allows us to develop actionable strategies for our clients' portfolios.

Active hands on Asset Management approach:

- Rigorous lifecycle approach designed to identify, implement and monitor investment themes and tactics to achieve competitive long-term, risk-adjusted returns for our clients.
- Seasoned local teams and hands-on approach translates into better and more efficient real estate decisions, which can add long-term value for investors.

Proven access to transaction flow:

- Our size, reputation and long standing relationships often give us access to a wide range of investment opportunities before they are broadly marketed.

Key risks of real estate investments

Investments in real estate are subject to various risks, including but not limited to the following:

- Adverse changes in economic conditions including changes in the financial conditions of tenants, buyer and sellers, changes in the availability of debt financing, changes in interest rates, real estate tax rates and other operating expenses;
- Adverse changes in law and regulation including environmental laws and regulations, zoning laws and other governmental rules and fiscal policies;
- Environmental claims arising in respect of real estate acquired with undisclosed or unknown environmental problems or as to which inadequate reserves have been established;
- Changes in the relative popularity of property types and locations;
- Risks and operating problems arising out of the presence of certain construction materials; and
- Currency/exchange rate risks where the investments are denominated in a currency other than the investor's home currency.
