

Instructions for 403(b) Plan Beneficiary Designation Form

Numerous situations may affect your beneficiary designation, such as the death of a beneficiary, divorce, birth or adoption of a child, or beneficiary name change. You may wish to notify your designated beneficiary that he or she is the beneficiary of your account. In the event of your death, your beneficiary should elect a distribution option with DWS Trust Company. If your beneficiary fails to make an election by December 31 of the year following the year of your death, adverse tax consequences may result. Consult your tax advisor for more information.

If you need assistance completing this form, call Shareholder Services: (800) 728-3337.

Step 2 Beneficiary designation

The following person(s) is to receive my 403(b) plan account assets upon my death. By submitting this form I understand that I am revoking all previous primary and secondary beneficiary designations and my new beneficiary designation(s) will only become effective upon acceptance by DWS Trust Company, the custodian of my 403(b) plan account. A confirmation will be generated by DWS that this new information has been received and accepted by DWS Trust Company. I understand that I can change this beneficiary designation during my lifetime by submitting a new form to DWS Trust Company. If I name more than one primary beneficiary and do not indicate percentages, distributions will be made equally to primary beneficiaries who survive me. If a percentage is indicated and a primary beneficiary does not survive me, the percentage of that beneficiary's share will be divided equally among the surviving primary beneficiary(ies). Secondary beneficiaries will receive distributions only if there are no surviving primary beneficiaries. Distributions to secondary beneficiaries will be made according to the rules of succession described above for primary beneficiary. Percentages must equal 100%.

If more than two primary or two secondary beneficiaries are named, add additional pages with the same information as requested here. (If you do not indicate the percentage, we will distribute the proceeds evenly.)

Please note, there is no need to designate your estate as sole primary beneficiary because a 403(b) account without any beneficiary designation will be transferred to the estate of the shareholder upon their death.
